

NAUGATUCK HISTORICAL SOCIETY
195 WATER STREET
PO BOX 317
NAUGATUCK, CT 06770
www.naugatuckhistory.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Naugatuck Historical Society is happy to announce the following upcoming events.

April 16, 2008

GENERAL MEETING & GUEST SPEAKER

Gordon Williams presents The Good Old Days of 1890.

Award-winning educator and local historian Gordon Williams provides some insight into 1890s New England life. Immigrants were flocking to America; business was booming in the era of the Robber Baron; Joseph Pulitzer ran the presses and bicycles were the newest fad.

Naugatuck Historical Society Museum

195 Water Street; Naugatuck, CT 06770

Wednesday, beginning at 6:30 pm

Free for historical society members

$2.00 Museum admission for non-members

Refreshments will be served.

May 26, 2008

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Be on the lookout for the Naugatuck Historical Society's float in the Annual Parade.

NAUGATUCK HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM ON THE WEB

The Naugatuck Historical Society Museum is excited to announce the launch of our new listserv. By logging on to the NHS-listserv on Yahoo Groups you can keep yourself, your family and your organization up-to-date on all the exciting events going on at the NHS Museum. Plus, each week the listserv will feature a brief article about Naugatuck's rich history. Join by going to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/NHS-listserv/>. Just click Join this Group in the top right corner.

We are also proud to announce that the Naugatuck Historical Society is now on AmericanTowns.com. Hundreds of exciting events all over town can be found on the Naugatuck Community Calendar page. So, be on the lookout for NHS events!!!

<http://www.americantowns.com/ct/naugatuck>

Don't forget, new exhibits go on display at the Museum all the time. Stop by during regular hours Wednesday through Friday, noon—4pm and Saturday 10am—2pm. Or, you can set up an appointment to visit our Reference Room, to learn more about Naugatuck's rich history.