Bid documents may also be obtained at the Office of the Purchasing Agent upon submission of a non-refundable fee in the form of a check or money order payable to the Borough of Naugatuck in the amount of $50.00 per set.

The Borough of Naugatuck reserves the right to waive any informalities or to reject any or all bids.

No Bidder may withdraw his bid within (90) days after the actual date of the opening thereof.

The Borough of Naugatuck is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. MBE's, WBE's and SBE's are encouraged to apply.

60 - 1.4 - Equal opportunity clause.

(a) Government contracts. Except as otherwise provided, each contracting agency shall include the following equal opportunity clause contained in section 202 of the order in each of its Government contracts (and modifications thereof if not included in the original contract): During the performance of this contract, the contractor agrees as follows: (1) The contractor will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. The contractor will take affirmative action to ensure that applicants are employed, and that employees are treated during employment, without regard to their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Such action shall include, but not be limited to the following: Employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertising; layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training, including apprenticeship. The contractor agrees to post in conspicuous places, available to employees and applicants for employment, notices to be provided by the contracting officer setting forth the provisions of this nondiscrimination clause.

(2) The contractor will, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the contractor, state that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

(3) The contractor will send to each labor union or representative of workers with which he has a collective bargaining agreement or other contract or understanding, a notice to be provided by the agency contracting officer, advising the labor union or workers' representative of the contractor's commitments under section 202 of Executive Order 11246 of September 24, 1965, and shall post copies of the notice in conspicuous places available to employees and applicants for employment.

(4) The contractor will comply with all provisions of Executive Order 11246 of September 24, 1965, and of the rules, regulations, and relevant orders of the Secretary of Labor.

(5) The contractor will furnish all information and reports required by Executive Order 11246 of September 24, 1965, and by the rules, regulations, and orders of the Secretary of Labor, or pursuant thereto, and will permit access to his books, records, and accounts by the contracting agency and the Secretary of Labor for purposes of investigation to ascertain compliance with such rules, regulations, and orders.

(6) In the event of the contractor's non-compliance with the nondiscrimination clauses of this contract or with any of such rules, regulations, or orders, this contract may be canceled, terminated or suspended in whole or in part and the contractor may be declared ineligible for further Government contracts in accordance with procedures authorized in Executive Order 11246 of September 24, 1965, and such other sanctions may be imposed and remedies invoked as provided in Executive Order 11246 of September 24, 1965, or by rule, regulation, or order of the Secretary of Labor, or as otherwise provided by law.

(7) the contractor will include the provisions of paragraphs (1) through (7) in every subcontract or purchase order unless exempted by rules, regulations, or orders of the Secretary of Labor issued pursuant to section 204 of Executive Order 11246 of September 24, 1965, so that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor. The contractor will take such action with respect to any subcontract or purchase order as may be directed by the Secretary of Labor as a means of enforcing such provisions including sanctions for noncompliance: Provided, however, that in the event the contractor becomes involved in, or is threatened with, litigation with a subcontractor or vendor as a result of such direction, the contractor may request the United States to enter into such litigation to protect the interests of the United States.

SECTION A

INFORMATION FOR BIDDERS

Borough of Naugatuck

1. Engagement of the Contractor

Whereas, the Borough of Naugatuck has a duty, pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes Section 47a-42, to store goods belonging to persons lawfully evicted from premises located in the Borough of Naugatuck and to auction such goods after a period of time; the Borough of Naugatuck hereby engages the Contractor and the Contractor hereby agrees to perform the services in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below.

The Contractor shall not subcontract any of the services to be performed by it under this document without the prior written approval of the Borough of Naugatuck.

2. Scope of Services

The Contractor shall perform the services set forth under this document in a satisfactory manner, as determined by the Borough of Naugatuck.

The Borough of Naugatuck reserves the right to inspect the premises used by the Contractor for the storage of evictees' goods (hereinafter referred to as the "storage facility") and may enter the storage facility any time for any purpose necessary, incidental to or connected with this document.

The Borough of Naugatuck reserves the right to inspect all records of the Contractor relating to any of the services set forth under this document, including all records which the Contractor is required to maintain under Section 3 of this document.

In performing the services required under this document, the Contractor shall consult with the Borough of Naugatuck and shall meet, as directed by the Borough of Naugatuck, with other persons or entities as may be necessary, and shall fully cooperate with the Borough of Naugatuck in the defense of any legal proceedings brought by or against the Borough of Naugatuck relating to any of the services to be performed by the Contractor under this document, except for a dispute between the Contractor and the Borough of Naugatuck.

The Contractor shall comply with all applicable State, Federal and Local laws, including zoning, building and fire regulations.

The services to be provided by the Contractor shall include:

- (a) Storage of evictee's goods
- (b) Auctioning of evictee's goods
- (c) Lawful disposal of evictee's goods
- (d) Maintenance of records

3. Description of Services

The Contractor will be available on a twenty-four (24) hour notice from the Borough of Naugatuck, or a Sheriff, or his Deputy Sheriff, of the County of New Haven, to receive and store the goods of a person or entity being lawfully evicted from premises located in the Borough of Naugatuck.

The Contractor shall store and auction such goods in accordance with Section A and B below.

A. Storage of Evictee's Goods

The Contractor shall store all evictees' goods in a storage facility.

The Contractor shall use a portion of this storage facility solely for the storage of evictee's goods. The Contractor shall have separate storage areas for each evictee's goods.

If any of the evictee's goods are stored in open boxes, the Contractor shall seal such boxes prior to their removal,

Prior to the storage of any evictee's goods, the Contractor shall make a list, on a form, of all goods removed by the Contractor and the condition of such goods, and shall request that the Sheriff or his Deputy has prepared his own list of the evictee's goods, the Contractor to list items that are stored bin sealed or closed boxes or other closed containers.

The Contractor shall forward copies of each scheduled eviction notice and eviction contents to the Public Works Office, 246 Rubber Avenue, Naugatuck, CT 06770.

The Contractor shall keep the storage facility clean free of debris and vermin, dry and in good repair. The Contractor shall not allow any condition to be created or maintained which would be unsafe or unsanitary. The Contractor shall remove all ice, snow and leaves from the entrances, driveways and sidewalks of the storage facility and remove all trash from the storage facility.

The Contractor shall store the evictee's goods for a minimum of twenty-two (22) days following the date of eviction, unless the evictee authorizes the Contractor, in writing, to dispose of such goods or pays the Contractor for the cost of storing said goods in accordance with the fee schedule listed below for the time period requested by said evictee.

Storage

1-5 Rooms of furniture $250.00 per month

6-9 Rooms of furniture $350.00 per month

For purposes of calculating storage fees, the first month shall be deemed to commence on the day that the evictee's goods are moved to the storage facility and shall be deemed to end thirty (30) days after. For every subsequent month thereafter, the evictee shall be liable for a full month of storage fees for every day during the month that the evictee's goods remain in storage. All fees collected by the Contractor under this subsection shall belong solely to the contractor. The Contractor shall maintain records of all fees collected.

The Contractor shall maintain, in the evictee's file, a written log of every contact made by the evictee and/or the evictee's representative with the Contractor regarding storage, auction and/or claiming of the evictee's goods.

B. Auctioning and Disposal of Goods

The Contractor shall not dispose of any goods stored by its pursuant to this document prior to the time period set forth in Section B or this Section or in any manner not specifically provided by the terms of this document.

The Contractor shall use reasonable efforts to notify an evictee, whose goods remain unclaimed after fifteen (15) days following the date of eviction and who has failed to pay moving costs as described in Section B, that the evictee's goods will be sold at public auction. Such reasonable efforts shall include sending a notice of public auction to the evictee's last known address and sending such notice to the State Department of Social Services, General Assistance Administration. The Contractor shall also post notice of such auction for one week on the public signpost nearest to the place where the eviction was made or at an exterior place near the Naugatuck Town Clerk's Office. The Contractor shall maintain copies of all notices provided under this subsection.

The Contractor shall, at its own expense, cause the evictee's goods to be sold at a public auction no sooner than one week following the giving of notice of auction to the evictee as provided in Section C. Such auction shall be held in conformity with the requirements of Connecticut General Statutes, Section 21-1 et seq.

The Contractor shall keep records of all funds received for each sale of evictee's goods at public auction. The Contractor may deduct from the proceeds of such sale all moving and storage fees permitted under Section B. The Contractor's records shall note all deductions made. If the funds received from the sale of an evictee's goods exceed the storage and moving fees permitted under Section B, the Contractor shall hold such funds for the evictee for thirty days following the date of auction. If, after the expiration of such period, the evictee does not claim such funds, the Contractor shall forward such funds to the Controller of the Borough of Naugatuck. The Contractor may dispose of any goods that are not sold at public auction and for which the evictee has failed to pay storage and moving charges in any manner that it chooses. In the event that the Contractor shall be required to pay any and all charges or fees for disposing of such goods with the Borough of Naugatuck to be held harmless.

4. Terms and Conditions

This document, its terms and conditions and any claims arising there from, shall be governed by Connecticut law. The Contractor shall comply with all applicable law, ordinances, and codes of the State of Connecticut and the Borough of Naugatuck and shall commit no trespass on any private property in performing services under this document.

The parties agree that they waive a trial by jury as to any and all claims, cause of action or disputes arising out of this document or services to be provided pursuant to this document.

Notwithstanding any such claim, dispute, or legal action, the Contractor shall continue to perform services under this document in a timely manner, unless otherwise directed by the Borough of Naugatuck.

5. Subcontracting and Assignability

None of the services covered by this document shall be subcontracted without the prior written approval of the Borough of Naugatuck for the acts and omissions of its contractors, and of persons either directly or indirectly employed by Contractor, as it is for the acts and omissions of persons directly employed by Contractor. The Borough of Naugatuck may, before making payment on the document require either an affidavit from the Contractor that all subcontractors and material men have been paid or may require waiver of mechanics' liens from any and all subcontractors and material men.

The Contractor shall not assign any interest in this document, and shall not transfer any interest in the same (whether by assignment or notation) without the prior written approval of the Borough of Naugatuck; provided, however, that claims for money due or to become due the Contractor from the Borough of Naugatuck under this document may be assigned to a bank, trust company, or other financial institution, or to a Trustee in Bankruptcy, without such approval. Notice of any such assignment or transfer shall be furnished promptly to the Borough of Naugatuck.

The Borough of Naugatuck may, from time to time, request changes in the scope of services of the Contractor to be performed hereunder. Such changes, including any increase or decrease in the amount of the Contractor's compensation which are mutually agreed upon by and between the Borough of Naugatuck and the Contractor, shall be incorporated in written amendments executed by both parties to this document.

6. Termination of Contract

If, through any cause, the Contractor shall fail to fulfill, in a timely and proper manner, his obligations under this document, or if the Contractor shall violate any of the covenants, agreements, or stipulations of this document by giving written notice to the Contractor of termination and specifying the effective date thereof, at least five (5) days before the effective date of such termination. In the event of such termination all records prepared by the Contractor under this document shall, at the option of the Borough of Naugatuck, become its property.
