Burgess Bronko said he had a wonderful time marching in the parade. It was disconcerting to him that the governor of the State of Connecticut came to march in our parade and he had to listen to derogatory statements and cat calls towards him.

FOR THE RECORD: “I would like to apologize to the governor for the actions of our residents that had done that to him. Whether or not you agree with the man because of his policies, you have to respect the office. I would just hope that next time we have any type of dignitaries that we would show that respect during a parade or any type of other public function.”
