20. Prospect Street School has been abandoned for educational purposes by the Naugatuck Board of Education. It seems impractical that the building would ever function as a school again with the amount of work that would be needed for the costs associated with it. The Long Term School Facility Planning Committee recommended Prospect Street School be returned to the Borough of Naugatuck and sold to help offset some of the debt service for school repairs. Mayor Mezzo suggested the borough refer the matter to the Naugatuck Economic Development Corporation to engage a realtor to seek market interest. Anything in terms of a sale would have to be referred to the Planning Commission and then ultimately subject to approval by the Board of Mayor and Burgesses as seller of the property. The following motion was made in regard to Prospect Street School:
