10. Burgess Comments/Sub-Committee Reports

Burgess Scully thanked everyone for attending the Memorial Day Parade.

Burgess Fragoso also thanked everyone for attending the Memorial Day Parade. She was broken hearted and embarrassed to see a tattered American flag raised on the pole outside of Town Hall during the Memorial Day ceremonies. She was upset watching people cross in front of the children marching at the end of the parade. She suggested asking for the Police Department's assistance in preventing this from occurring next year.

Burgess Burns echoed Burgess Fragoso's comments with regard to the tattered American flag. He feels it is a disgrace. Burgess Burns thinks the children should lead off the parade. He thanked the Mayor for his kind words toward Veterans.

Minutes – Board of Mayor and Burgesses
Regular Meeting – June 1, 2010

Mayor Mezzo took responsibility for the tattered flag. He apologized for not noticing the flag since it flies outside his office window.

Deputy Mayor Rossi said the responsibility for the flag is the Board's since it is in front of the Town Hall. The number of teachers retiring this year will have a tremendous impact on the Borough. She commended Michelle Kalogrides for all of her efforts every year with the National Day of Prayer. She congratulated the graduates from the Adult Education program and the DARE program. The Deputy Mayor thanked everyone involved with the dedication ceremony for Frank Johnson, Sr. She thanked all Borough departments involved in making the parade a success. She spoke about an incident that occurred on Memorial Day with a resident reporting an alleged rabid raccoon in their yard. The resident was told by the Animal Control Department that he was getting off duty and to check the internet for information on contacting the DEP. DEP was not helpful and she ultimately called the Police Department that put down the raccoon. The Deputy Mayor spoke to Chief Edson and she will update the Board with his findings.

Burgess Woodfield asked if anything is being done about the lack of funds to hold the Fourth of July fireworks this year.

Burgess Neth said he hopes the Board of Education's budget gets finalized by the end of the week so the Borough is not in the same situation as last year.

Burgess Ciacciarella thanked all the organizers of the parade. He suggested organizing a post parade clean up crew for next year. He said Robin Hayden and her son Nikko began cleaning the green after the parade. He attended the Eagles Mother of the Year ceremony. Burgess Ciacciarella commended his fellow Burgesses and Finance Board members for the long and arduous task putting together the budget.

Burgess Kuczenski thanked everyone for coming to the parade. He was disturbed by the fact that two political candidates wanted to march in our parade. He said our parade is not about politics but to honor Veterans who fought and died for our country. He thanked Fran Dambowsky for not allowing them to march in the parade.
