7. Mayor's Monthly Report

The Senior Center held its annual corned beef dinner with our Tax Collector Jim Goggin doing a fine job once again cooking 300 pounds of beef. Congratulations to Mr. Clarence Lennon for being honored as our Irish Mayor of the Day.

Naugatuck Schools participated in the Read Across America campaign and the Mayor was pleased to be able to read to different classes at Salem and Maple Hill Elementary schools. It was extremely satisfying to join teachers in getting the message out to our children of the importance and fun of reading.

The Republican and Democratic mayoral primaries took place and Mayor thanked the voters who came out to give him the Republican endorsement. He also congratulated Bob Mezzo on winning the Democratic primary. The Mayor encouraged everyone to vote in the regular election on May 4th.

The Naugatuck High School Band held its annual indoor color guard and percussion competition and he thanked them for the invitation to give out the trophies to the winners.

Mayor met with Congresswoman Rosa DeLauro to discuss the stimulus funds coming from the American Reinvestment Act. Naugatuck is slated to receive stimulus funding for various projects but the bills are still on the floor for discussion and we are not sure of the timing of the funds disbursements.

Once again Mayor Bronko participated in this year's Mayors for Meals program. Mayor helped deliver meals to Naugatuck residents who participate in this program and he was thankful for the opportunity to meet and speak to them about this much needed service.

Minutes-Board of Mayor and Burgesses
Regular Meeting –April 7, 2009

The Exchange Club held its annual Community Champions dinner and the Mayor congratulated this year's honorees: Policeman of the Year, Carmine Fidanza; Citizen of the Year, Robert Froelick; Co-Teachers of the Year, Kathy Schacht and Nancy LaGrave; Firefighter of the Year, Todd Gallino.

Mayor Bronko had a great time coaching the faculty in the annual Student vs. Faculty basketball game. The game was close but with a last second shot by High School Principal Fran Serratore, the faculty came out victorious and once again has bragging rights for another year.

Naugatuck's school music department put on a wonderful show in this year's Borough Music Festival. Students from grades 4 through 12 demonstrated their singing talent and ended with all four hundred students coming together to sing the finale. It was truly excellent.

A kick off meeting was held for the Senior Home Work Project. Last year 40 senior residents were helped with home maintenance and repair. The project will be expanded this year to help more seniors and save them more money. Applications can be found on the Borough website or in the Mayor's office.

Mayor Bronko was very happy to report that this year a budget was adopted with no tax increase. Mayor thanked the Finance Board and Burgesses for working together to accomplish this goal for our residents in the time of national economic turmoil.

It will take time for stimulus funds to be distributed to create jobs and because of this residents are facing problems they may have never experienced before so the Mayor is launching a Mayor's Community Initiative to help residents during this time called the Resident Economic Resource Initiative. The Mayor's Office will team up with the Naugatuck Social Service Network and the Whittemore Library to provide resource information to residents who are having trouble with home foreclosure, bill collectors, job seeking, resume writing and other economy related issues. The library will provide space as well as materials to be used for this initiative that will be available to the public Friday, April 17th.

8. Public Comment

Six residents spoke on the following issues: Need for sports fields, Gunntown property (support and opposition), kudos to Mayor for a zero budget.

9. Monthly Update by Human Resource Director Jeannette Deschesnes.

Gibson for not taking an increase in his pay and to Deputy Fire Chief Ken Hanks for taking a zero increase. She also thanked Jeannette Deschesnes for an outstanding year and for all of her hard work putting such a comprehensive report together. She wished everyone luck in the coming election.

Minutes-Board of Mayor and Burgesses

-Burgess Burns enjoyed working together with everyone and expects to see everyone back. Good Luck.

-Deputy Mayor Rossi - I attended the Naugatuck Untied Way Dinner on March 5th. I wan to congratulate Caren Bouchard on being recognized as well as the outgoing President, Kevin DelGobbo and all of the incoming officers.

NAUGATUCK BUSINESS MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION

The Association met on March 9th and put together a Business Merchants After Hours Event. This event is to promote the Business Merchant Association and encourage all Businesses located in Naugatuck to join this social event to network and learn more about the Business Merchant Association.

The web site is up and the members are anxious to have people check it out and encourage the entire community to rediscover the wonderful businesses that are located in Naugatuck!

NAUGATUCK TRIAD

The TRIAD meeting took place April 1st . We have a Shred It Program scheduled for Thursday, April 30th. from 9:00 Am to 11:00 AM at the Naugatuck Senior Center. This is an event open to everyone in the community. This event is to help aid the community to get rid of personal information and protect against identity theft. I urge everyone to take advantage of this program.

We are also working on being present at the Duck Race and the Summer Concert Series.

VNA

I attended the Advisory Committee Meeting of the VNA on March 23rd at the VNA building on Rubber Avenue. Mrs. Butler reported that Referrals are comparable to last year. The total visit numbers were down, however, recovered in most areas including nursing, therapies and home health aide visits. Revenue through March 19th was at $838,737 with Title 19 Medicare reimbursements pending. This amount leaves $311,263 necessary to meet the budgeted $1,150,000 goal for this fiscal year.

The CPA that reviews and does the cost report for the VNA has reviewed and made suggestions for increases in fees as follows:

Skilled Nursing from $110 to $125 per visit, Physical Therapy from $110 to $125 per visit, Occupational Therapy from $110 to $125 per visit, Speech Therapy from $110 to $125 per visit, Medical Social Worker and Home Health Aide visit cost will remain the same: $175 and $38 per visit respectively. These increases will bring the VNA in line with other VNAs and the going rate for these services. Ms. Butler mentioned the cost savings that the new teleconference telephone has been great and many have taken advantage of this system and teleconference training sessions at the VNA Building.

The alarm system was still being resolved in the building. Mrs. Butler is feeling confident it will be resolved.
