Old Business:

Automated Refuse and Recycling Update: Mrs. Baummer updated the Commission on the final distribution of trash and recycling carts that took place in August. Borough is now 100% automated. Two additional addresses besides 29/31 High Street were discovered to be greater than 4 units on one parcel. 206 & 210 Cherry Street and 42 & 44 High Street they received letters to discontinue services. Commission decided to table final decision on these along with 29/31 High Street. Collection services will be continued until the next meeting. Mrs. Baummer will notify owners.

New Business: Curbside collection complaints at 283 Quinn Street : Discussed and decided the resident at 283 Quinn Street can continue to place his carts in front of his house not across the street as requested by Sanitation employees.

121 & 129 Hill St. adjacent to 32-34 May Street: Tabled until next meeting.

Revision to “Automated Curbside Refuse/Recycling Collection Regulation” – Tabled to the November 21, 2012 Meeting.

Curbside collection complaints at Caitlin Circle and Porter Avenue: Discussed and do not feel there is a need to make any changes at this time to the set out locations Shelia Baummer will continue to monitor.

Vidich Lane – residential trash going to Recycle lot, 6 month period is up, renew? – Tabled to the November 21, 2012 meeting
