8. Public Comment

Naugatuck Historical Society President Kenneth Hanks asked the board to please have oversight on any changes made to the town green. He said a larger gazebo will detract from the open space of the green. Reverend Jodko from St. Michaels's Church thinks the town should work with the two churches as in the past to continue the partnership regarding the green. The Garden Club would like to be included in any discussion regarding the gazebo. Mayor Hess said a committee formed to raise money to fund a new gazebo. No plans have been drawn. He invited all three groups to work with the fundraising committee.
